This is an excellent opportunity for a dynamic, motivational teacher of English to join Breakthrough's team at Cannamore House, Avonwick.

Are you:

- An inspirations, imaginative, adaptable teacher and outstanding communicator?
- Suited to take on a role that requires you to be resilient, calm and unflappable?
- Reliable and trustworthy as a colleague who also enjoys close team working?

The successful candidate will be expert at engaging students with autism or significant challenges. They will plan, prepare and deliver therapeutic and academic teaching on a one to one basis to individual students. They will work cohesively with Core Worker and our in house therapeutic team to follow care plans and assist in creating educational schemes of work, write reports and keep accurate, up to date records. They will need to ensure the highest standards of professional practice and safeguarding.

Breakthrough is a supportive employer with an energetic and committed team of professionals who work together diligently to meet the needs of students. The successful applicant will form an important part of our team. Students follow a mixture of functional skills, GCSE and occasionally A Level English.

All employees will be required to obtain an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Certificate and references will be sought for the successful applicant. Training will include:

- (a) a Group 2 Safeguarding Training Course
- (b) a Prevent Strategy Training Course
- (c) a First Aid at Work Training Course
